

CARTY HAS A KICK

He Says the Populists Are Allied With Democrats,

THEREFORE HE PUBLICLY QUILTS

He Was in the Wrong Pew and He Hastens to Get Out, But Where Is He At Now?

Editor HERALD—Recent events regarding the so-called people's party in this county and congressional district suggests to the mind of the writer the propriety of requesting you to give him space in the columns of THE HERALD in order that the public may correctly understand why he determines to suddenly sever his connections with the new(?) party.

More than a year ago your correspondent, with a number of others from this city and other parts of the fifth congressional district, met in the old court house block and formally and regularly organized what he honestly believed to be the people's party, but which subsequent disclosures proved to be nothing more than a political machine in the hands of the corrupt party leaders of the local and nominal democracy, to be used ostensibly in the interests of the people's party, but in reality in the interests of a party distinguished only for its dishonesty, treachery, intrigue, corruption and cowardice. A party possessing the facility and capability of the tree toad of adapting itself to its surroundings and conditions, changing not only its colors but its name, in order to avoid detection in its infamous schemes to secure party supremacy and the spoils of office. I will now venture to give it its true name, viz. demagogic-labor-people's anything-to-win party. It is very accommodating when it has an object in view or an axe to grind. It will become all things to all men that it may gain the more. It will even profess to be with you that it might have a better chance to divide you, and it is absolutely dead to the living issues of the hour. Yes, it is twice dead and should be picked up by the roots.

Like a Dead Sea.

And any party or individual that shall become allied to it will have infinite reason to repent of its action, and will be constrained to pray: "Wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" It might be likened to a dead but troubled sea that cannot rest, casting up mire and dirt and foaming out of its own shame.

This party has shown great concern regarding the new party. And well it might, as it was an experiment in the form of a scheme to catch honest but unsuspecting men, who were anxiously waiting for a change. A scheme which, if effectual, would result in drawing so heavily from the republican party as to secure democratic majorities and supremacy. That this was the intent and ultimate object of these corrupt party leaders the following considerations, based on stubborn facts, will clearly show beyond the possibility of doubt. In the first place all the conventions, whether state, congressional, county or municipal, which the people's party have held were called prior to the democratic conventions from first to last. This was done in order that the hypocritical populists—who, in reality, were demagogues—might be able to select such men as the people's candidates, whom the democrats could consistently (?) endorse. There were always those at the front who were anxious to fuse or combine with the democrats. But until quite recently they were in such minorities that their scheme always proved to be abortive. And there were those, too, who were anxious to effect such fusion or combination, but who publicly and most emphatically declared against it. These men were the more dangerous, because the least suspicion of any deceit. They were always in the swim and at the front, and most always in the lead, holding places of trust and power. A few illustrious cases in point will make the above view of things very clear and put our position beyond the possibility of successful refutation.

The Jackson Fixation.

And the first is that of the people's party state nominating convention which was held at Jackson August 2. This convention was held two weeks before that of the democratic state convention which was held in this city. The state central committee of the people's party may have been perfectly innocent in calling it before the democratic convention, but there is strong presumptive evidence to lead us to conclude that the power and influence of the old party leaders was brought to bear on the state central committee of the populists. A supreme effort was made at the people's convention to secure the nomination of such men as the democrats could nominate also. But there was too many honest farmers present who were determined that the democratic party should not make our nominations. But notwithstanding this consideration the "copperheads," through intrigue, falsehoods, and misrepresentation did succeed in securing the nomination of A. A. Ellis.

The Nicest and Most Natural

The finest, purest, strongest and best flavors for cakes, puddings, pastry, etc., are Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts. In this age of adulteration, consumers owe it to themselves to patronize manufacturers who have an established reputation for placing in the market pure articles. Dr. Price's Extracts for purity have the endorsements of the leading chemists of this country. They are used by the United States Government. The best hotels and restaurants use them. The largest and finest grocers sell them, and they are destined to take the place of all other Flavoring Extracts.

This statement may startle some. But there is positive proof to sustain the charge. At the democratic state convention, in reply to Maurice Houseman who, in the name of Kent county delegates, opposed ostentatiously, or otherwise, the nomination of Mr. Ellis on the ground that he was affiliated with and had secured the nomination of another party for the same office, Wellington Burt of Saginaw replied and said: Gentlemen of the convention—So far as Mr. Houseman's objection to Mr. Ellis' nomination is concerned, it should not be regarded as derogatory, but favorable—and even commendable. And furthermore, gentlemen of the convention, allow me to inform and certify to you that the nomination of Mr. Ellis for attorney general at the people's convention at Jackson, August 2, was secured at the request and through the influence of the most influential democrats in the state of Michigan.

Duplicity Confessed.

This statement of Mr. Burt was concurred in by many in the convention, the whole convention acquiescing, amidst a shower of applause. Here we have a confession open and in the face of the duplicity and intrigue not only of Mr. Ellis, but also of many respectable (?) and influential democrats led by Mr. Burt. The same was true of Mr. Richardson. These same "influential democrats" tried to secure Mr. Richardson's nomination for governor. But an overwhelming majority of Kent county delegates got on to the scheme and vigorously opposed it, and through their, and especially that of the writer, who at the request and in the name of Kent county delegates, made a speech which fully exposed the hypocritical character of the scheme and which resulted in relegating Mr. Richardson to the rear, and securing the nomination for governor to Mr. Ewing. The next case in point was that of the calling of Kent county nominating convention. This convention was called for the 20th of August. The writer, who was on the county committee, vigorously opposed calling the county convention before the democratic state convention.

At the county convention, while the democrats failed to secure the nomination of Sh. H. McQueen because he was too clear a case of democracy, they did succeed by intrigue and misrepresentation to force Mr. Stebbins and others, who are well known to the democrats, on to the ticket.

Richardson's Nomination.

The next and last case in point is that of Mr. Geo. F. Richardson. Although the writer was not one of the congressional committee, he tried to persuade Chairman Burrows to postpone calling the convention until after the democrats had called theirs, and thus avoid a repetition of what occurred at the county convention. But Mr. Burrows deemed it proper to consult the wishes of the majority in the matter and so gave the democrats another chance to flirt. This so-called people's convention was nothing more than a democratic caucus. It is a well known fact that Mr. Richardson's nomination was made before he came to the so-called convention and there are the strongest reasons that W. D. Fuller, and others worked the scheme, and brought it to a successful issue. The methods used to accomplish this plan was for Mr. Fuller to go into the rural districts and organize Weaver clubs ostensibly, but in reality and in fact democratic clubs. This he volunteered to do "with out money or price." Undoubtedly the other delegates were worked by somebody else in the same way. Probably A. A. Ellis had a hand in the scheme, for he came at the head of the delegation from Ionia. All the delegates from Ionia and Ionia came exultantly in lav. at Richardson. Everything was out and dried in the way. Even the speech of acceptance was prepared on manuscript, and while the speech was an excellent one, its being prepared before hand is quite a suspicious circumstance. The calling of the convention in the day time, when most of the city delegates found it impossible to be present, the convention limiting the nominating speeches to five minutes; the vigorous and determined effort to call down the writer; the throwing of the mantle of charity over Mr. Richardson's conduct, relative to his going last fall under the instructions, and in the interests of the democratic party to the people's candidate, and urgently requesting Mr. Edward Hutchins who was our candidate, to withdraw in favor of the democratic candidate. These and many more considerations furnish irrefragable evidence that it was a put up job, to be carried out at the so-called people's convention, but which proved to be nothing more than a democratic caucus, and where the writer and others discovered that they were "in the wrong pew."

Middle of the Road.

Again, in the Evening Leader of the 10th inst., in an editorial under the caption "Meet Them Halfway," the editor, who is an out and out democrat and authority for the democratic party, recommends that "Kent county democracy should extend the olive branch to the people's party in the nomination of Mr. Richardson for congress has quit the 'middle of the road.'" The people's party in their nomination of Mr. Richardson for congress could leave the middle of the road is difficult to understand, unless it is known that Mr. Richardson is a democrat. This Mr. Richardson as well as his friends deny. In fact many of them considered it an insult, to question whether he (Richardson) stood squarely on the Omaha platform. Mr. Richardson, in his speech of acceptance, declared in favor of the Omaha platform, and pledged support to Weaver. Yet the Leader claims that the populists left the "middle of the road," when they nominated Richardson for congress. To stand squarely on the platform and pledge support to Weaver, is to keep in the middle of the road. To fuse or combine with any other party is to leave the "middle of the road." To meet the old party half way, is to leave the "middle of the road." But this implies that the old party also leaves the middle of the road. But it is difficult to see how the democratic party could leave the middle of the road, unless it is known that Mr. Richardson came from the democratic party. This Mr. Richardson denies. But what was the reason when it recommended that Kent county democracy should "meet the people's party half way?" Why that the democratic party should be as liberal as the people's and as the people's nominated Mr. Richardson for congress, so the democratic convention should nominate Hamilton, Greenway and Stebbins. Now it is reasonable that the Leader knows what it is talking about when it says that the people's party left the "middle of the road," when it nominated Mr. Richardson for congress. Is it a statement to meet money that Mr. Richardson is a democrat, notwithstanding what Mr. Richardson says to the contrary by declaring that he stands squarely on the Omaha platform, and pledging to support Weaver. The facts in the case are: That Mr. Richardson is a good democrat. Maurice Houseman says that he knows that Mr. Richardson is just as good a democrat as he wants. Mr. McQueen and Prosecuting Attorney McKnight both say that they know that Mr. Richardson is a good democrat. And they all three said to the writer they hoped that the people's party would nominate him for they would like to nominate him also. Taking all these things into consideration, it furnishes overwhelming evidence that Mr. Richardson is a democrat; and it is so a most commendable hypocrite.

Mr. Union spoke of him (Richardson) as being as pure as the dew of heaven. He may have been as pure as an angel.

"Once as pure as the snow, but he fell—

And like an angel, from heaven to hell."

And to force his name upon the people's party congress, a suitable person for congressional candidate was not only impudence, pure and simple, but the worst kind of political piracy and highway robbery. When I take these things into account I am led to enquire, "where am I at?" and I hear echo answer, "where?" And after deliberate consideration I have come to the conclusion that I have come to the "jumping off place." So good bye, demagogic-labor-people's anything-to-win party. "Good bye, my lover, good bye." And I hereby publicly declare that I have formally and publicly withdrawn from the so-called people's party in this locality. "To your tents, Oh Israel!" So mote it be.

Amusements.

So long as there is a public taste which recognizes and applauds such plays as "A Rocky Mountain Waltz" they must be supplied whether they be crude and worthless in dramatic value or not. "A Rocky Mountain Waltz" would be considered by many a decidedly rocky play but the large audience at the Grand this week like it nevertheless and receive it with every evidence of satisfaction. Its action takes place in the far west and it is full of the usual characters, adventure, scheming villains, heroines, and of course the usual success of the good over the bad. The heroine who baffles and defies all of these bold bad men is Rox which is assumed by Little Goldie and she is an actress who has no lack of confidence and abundant ambition. There is something winsome, with numerous people, about a woman who dons male attire and flourishes revolvers and without being too particular about art, Little Goldie fills the bill in this particular. Incidental to the production there are several songs and specialties which are of course well received. Frank Gillespie gives a clever negro delineation and sings comic songs and dances and carries off several honors. Mr. Clifford as McCarty also sings and is one of the favorite characters. The first matinee will be given today.

There was a large attendance at Smith's last night, which accepted the program presented very good humorously. The opening comedy, "O'Malley vs. Peabody," was presented in a vigorous knock-about fashion by the full complement of the stock company. Interspersed with olio were several picturesque sketches represented by girls with bewitching figures. The song and dance artists, Leonard and Hart, the eccentric comedian, Dan Randall, and Bob Leonard, were all worthy in their way. The serio-comic and sentimental singers, Bessie Milton, Mable Hazleton and Grace Wallace, are always looked for. Den Howe and Lola Hayward in their excellent character sketches, are becoming strong favorites with the audience. "Confession," the concluding comedy, dismissed the audience in splendid spirits. Matinees tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

Wilbur Opera company will open at the Grand next Sunday in the "Grand Duchesse." Matinees will be given every day and the following operas will be given each day and night: Monday, "Black Hussar;" Tuesday, "Clove;" Wednesday, "Ermine;" Thursday, "Mascotte;" Friday, "Boccaccio;" Saturday matinee, "Dorothy;" evening, "Falka;" and Sunday evening, "Boccaccio" will be repeated.

Congressional Nominations.

The congressional nominations that have so far been made by the republican party of the state comprise men of the highest character, and their election should insure honest and competent legislation. Dr. Avery, of our district, has a record that is second to none on the list. He has been a resident of the new part of the state for over fifty years, and was in the army four years. As a man and citizen he has the friendship and respect of men of all parties where he is known.—Oscoda Outlook.

Makes All the Difference.

If we were to put a two line item in the most obscure corner of the paper, which stated that a certain business man charged more for his goods, and kept a poorer grade than his competitors, that man would hire a bull-headed slugger to come round and kill us the next morning. But if we were to ask the same man for an advertisement in his wares, he would say, "No, I don't believe in advertising; no one reads advertisements."—Edmore Journal.

Vote for a Brother Soldier.

There will be plenty of democrats about the state this fall asking soldiers to vote for Benjamin Morse because he was G. A. R. comrade. But no one will hear Morse ask democrats to vote for him. Harrison because he also was a brave Union soldier. When Morse says he will vote for Harrison, because he is a comrade it will be time enough for republicans to think of voting for Morse for the same reason.—Allegan Gazette.

No Such Incentive.

The strikes which occur in this country are nearly always caused by the prospects offered the laboring men for bettering their condition. They see someone that entitles them to hope for improvement and they grow impatient to enjoy it and strike to enforce their demands for it. These are not the hopes that strikers in other countries have any grounds for harboring.—Cassopolis Herald.

Michael Cunningham died at Palmer Saturday afternoon. He was for years marshal of Nagsburg, in which office he gave general satisfaction. He was highly respected by many citizens.

Innocent Was a Little Man

He said he only took of his tail quizzing friends who asked how he felt among a group of men, "that he was a stranger among a group, worth their salt." "Pardon?" he said, "so, there may be many preparations for the teeth, but it is worth them all."
